

Sligo Grammar School

Boarding Houses Policies and Procedures

The Boarding Houses within Sligo Grammar School while under the overall direction of the School Management are also the home of students.

All pupils within the Boarding Houses are subject to the policies and procedures of the school at all times. They are also subject to any rules and procedures of the Boarding Houses. The House Parents, the Duty Staff and the Matrons act in loco parentis and are responsible for implementing these policies and procedures in an equitable manner.

Approved – subject to legal advice 3rd March 2014

Due for Review 2016